The home itself has been beautifully maintained both outside and in, providing a classic Victorian exposed brick fa  ade, neatly edged by a brick and iron work boundary wall and mosaic pathway on approach. Internally, the choice to mix a neutral colour palette emphasises the high ceilings and natural light on offer, with the warm wooden tones coming from the exposed flooring in the downstairs area adding a warmth to the spacious rooms. An elegant formal reception to the front is separated by the homes entrance hall, which in turn leads to an open-plan family/dining room and kitchen. From the rear living space there are wonderful views over the large garden, something that can be enjoyed whilst dining, cooking or working from the handy home office area at the very end of the kitchen, where an additional, utility room with W.C can also be accessed.

To the first floor there are two well proportioned double bedrooms and an opulent family bathroom fitted with a period bathroom suite including a striking roll top bath placed centrally in the room. The loft has been converted to provide a generous principal bedroom and en-suite shower room with surprisingly good head height, with the bedroom enjoying bespoke, fitted wardrobes, air conditioning and sash style windows.

To the rear there is a generous garden of approximately 95 feet enjoying side access and with a sizeable brick-built shed to the rear. The patio provides the perfect place to open the French doors from the kitchen and enjoy the sunshine in the summer months, in what is a fantastically private garden for such a central location.
