Petty Son & Prestwich are delighted to offer for sale this period, end of terrace railway cottage, located within the popular North Chingford area, moments from Chingford Station and surrounding countryside.

Located in North Chingford, this attractive cottage is wonderfully situated for those who require an easy commute, with Chingford Station approximately two minutes' walk on foot (0.1 Mile), in addition to an equally convenient array of independent, shops, bars, cafés and restaurant's accessible from Station Road. Epping Forest is also moments from your doorstep, providing year round walks, cycle routes and runs for those wishing to take advantage of the ancient woods and footpaths.

Well-presented throughout with a wonderfully, homely feel, the home offers a fantastically proportioned 242 square foot lounge/diner, allowing for a good sized living and dining suite. A large opening from the rear of the reception room into kitchen ensures the large reception is naturally bright, in addition to allowing those in the kitchen to interact with family and friends in the living room. The kitchen has been extended with a full ceiling of glass, flooding the space with light and providing overhead ventilation in the summer months, with plenty of floorspace available to accommodate a large range cooker. The family bathroom is located just off of the kitchen with a contemporary, fully tiled bathroom suite offering bath with wall mounted shower. To the first floor there are three bedrooms, the principal with a charming central fireplace. The loft provides a good deal of handy storage space in addition to offering further potential for extension (STPC). To the rear there is a beautifully landscaped garden stocked with established plants and shrubs, with rear deck and storage shed, whilst gated side access allows for the easy removal of garden waste or storage of bikes. The home is offered to market with no onward chain, perfect for those looking for a swift move.
