Hermon Hill, Wanstead

Petty Son and Prestwich are delighted to offer for sale this well-presented, one double bedroom, first floor period conversion, with the added benefit of a shared garden and communal parking.

Positioned in central Wanstead, this chain free apartment is just 0.4 miles from Wanstead's vibrant High Street with its array of boutiques, bars and restaurants as well as both Wanstead and Snaresbrook Central Line stations and the beautiful green space of Christchurch Green.

The property has been designed to ensure every inch of space has been cleverly utilised, starting with a combined living room/kitchen with large central window and high ceilings typical for the period of this property. The bespoke kitchen has been designed to make the most of the high ceilings with cabinets stretching to ceiling height, accompanied by stylish mirrored splash-backs and a marble work top. A separate laundry cupboard in the hallway takes the pressure off the kitchen needing to accommodate the washing machine and keeps the space dedicated solely to food preparation and cooking. A well proportioned bathroom and double bedroom with range of inbuilt cupboards and views over the communal gardens complete the accommodation. Externally there is a shared communal garden to the rear and communal parking to the front with the option of also acquiring on street permit parking if desired. The property is offered for sale chain free allowing for a swift sale.
