It is positioned in the sought after Dover Road, a charming tree-lined street within five minutes' walk of Wanstead Park, Wanstead Flats and Aldersbrook Primary School. Wanstead Park is a wonderful space all year round, with picturesque walks, ornamental lakes with a tea hut serving light refreshments and 'The Temple', which hosts outdoor cinema and plays in the summer months. Aldersbrook Primary School is rated outstanding by Ofsted. Commuters have easy access to the Elizabeth Line (Manor Park, 1.1 miles) and Central Line (Wanstead, 1.6 miles) by bus, walk or cycle and to the Overground Suffragette Line (Wanstead Park, 1.2 miles) on foot or cycle.

On arrival at the house the abundance of character is clear, with the impressive brick fronted facade enhanced by the original tiled pathway and porch, the ornate cornicing, high ceilings, sash windows and central fireplaces all giving a nod to the property's past. The welcoming entrance hallway with carved balustrade gives access to the large cellar which is currently used for storage. To the front of the house is an elegant sitting room with a stunning marble fireplace and large bay window ensuring the room is flooded by natural light. The dining room can be accessed either from the hallway or sitting room and leads into the kitchen which has storage cupboards and shelving.

To the rear of the house, you will find a large second reception room offering plenty of space for the family to relax whilst the French doors lead to the open conservatory enjoying garden views. On the first floor you will find three bedrooms: the principal being superbly sized, running across the front of the house; the rear bedroom boasting a beautiful fireplace. The family bathroom is fitted with a white suite and completes the accommodation.

The large rear garden is mainly laid to lawn and is bordered by flowerbeds, mature trees and shrubs.
