Selsdon Road, Wanstead

Occupying the first floor of an attractive Victorian, double fronted house, this large two bedroom apartment offers generously proportioned rooms just 0.4 Miles from Wanstead Station and High Street.

Positioned on the characterful Selsdon Road, a no-through road just 0.4 miles from Wanstead Station and High Street, sits this beautiful, two double bedroom first floor Victorian conversion.

Stepping into a central entrance hall, a fresh white colour palette that runs throughout the home creates a crisp, contemporary feel throughout and helps to accentuate the property's naturally high ceilings. Offering plenty of room for a lounge and dining set, the spacious living/dining room features a striking exposed brick chimney breast, wooden flooring and large bay window. Conveniently located opposite the dining space, the separate kitchen offers a run of units including integrated ovens and a large butler sink whilst the opposite side, currently occupied by a run of freestanding units, could be fitted with further units, a breakfast bar left open to allow for a greater feeling of space. There are two double bedrooms with period style radiators, ideal for friends or family members looking to buy together or as an ideal investment opportunity. There is also a contemporary bathroom with L shaped bath and shower overhead.
