Nightingale Lane, Wanstead

Petty Son & Prestwich are happy to offer for sale this one double bedroom, Warden controlled, ground floor retirement apartment in a popular central Wanstead location.

Council Tax Band: C

Forming part of this popular warden assisted development in Westleigh Court, on site facilities include a large residents lounge with views over the Wanstead United Reformed Church, W.C and tea making facilities, a well-tended communal garden, laundry services and a visitors' suite bookable in advance for visiting guests, on-site warden supplemented with 24 hour monitored, corded assistance system. Set back from, but only a few feet from Wanstead High Street, the location of Westleigh Court allows the new owner easy access to all amenities, with an array of shops, restaurants, cafes and two Central Line stations on the doorstep.

Located to the front of the building, both the reception and double bedroom enjoy views towards the church and Wanstead's popular High Road, with the kitchen leading directly from the lounge/diner. The property's entrance hall enjoys a very deep storage cupboard and provides access to the shower room. The home is offered to market chain free.
