STUDIO COTTAGE

Embrace a unique lifestyle in this charming studio apartment, cleverly created from the historic Ardgay Train Station. This delightful property offers a seamless blend of original character and contemporary comfort. The heart of the home is a bright and airy lounge, benefiting from dual aspect windows that flood the space with natural light. The well-equipped galley kitchen features fitted base and wall units, an integrated hob and oven, and space for a washing machine and fridge. A particular highlight is the inviting dining area situated within a bay window, offering picturesque views across the train line – a truly distinctive spot for enjoying meals. The apartment also comprises a comfortable bedroom area and a practical shower room, complete with a white wash basin, w/c, and a shower enclosure with an electric shower.

To the front of the property, you'll find a private enclosed courtyard, laid with chippings. Its south-facing orientation makes it a wonderful sun trap, ideal for relaxing and enjoying the outdoors.

INCOME POTENTIAL

Currently tenanted on a full-time long-term let, it provides an immediate income stream. Furthermore, the property offers excellent potential for use as a short-term let, subject to obtaining the appropriate licence from the Highland Council.

LOCATION

Nestled in the picturesque Scottish Highlands, Ardgay is a charming village that exudes a tranquil atmosphere. The historic Railway Station is situated in the centre of the village providing regular transport links south to Inverness and north to Wick/Thurso. Surrounded by stunning natural beauty, the village offers a peaceful retreat while remaining conveniently located approximately 14 miles from the larger town of Tain, providing access to a wider range of amenities and services. For families, schooling options are available within Ardgay itself for primary education, with secondary schooling found in nearby Tain.

LISTED BUILDING

The Category C Listed Building, formed within part of the original Station Master's House, dating back to 1874, has been fully renovated.
