47 Clifford Gardens, Shrehampton, BS11 0ED

A very unique opportunity to purchase this sizeable extended semi detached dormer bungalow in an elevated position sitting above the village of Shirehampton. The property is located on Clifford Gardens, a cul-de-sac which was constructed from 1958 onwards, the road was named after the well known de Clifford family who were the squires of Kingsweston from 1776-1832. The property is in a fantastic condition, the accommodation is stylish and light, consisting of entrance hall, spacious lounge with a feature fireplace with wood burner, kitchen/breakfast room boasting integral appliances, granite work tops and a range cooker, dining room, study/bedroom 4, and a utility room. Upstairs there are a further three bedrooms, 1 with a generous en-suite and a great size bathroom. There are wonderful far reaching views across to North Somerset, gardens on all three sides, a detached garage and off street parking. The views from the front are far reaching across to Abbots Leigh, the Avon Gorge and the whole Avon valley leading across to the mouth of the Severn. To the rear there is a multiple levelled rear garden with further impressive views. A viewing is a must to appreciate this lovely home as houses of this type and quality are rare to the market, an internal inspection is essential to appreciate what is on offer.

Just a short walk from the shops, cafés, health centre, bus routes, train station and Shirehampton village, and also convenient for Avonmouth and the City Centre. It is in the catchment area for several schools rated good by Ofsted, including St Bernard's RC primary, and Shirehampton primary. At secondary level, Oasis Academy Brightstowe is rated good, as is St Bede's Catholic College. viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the well maintained accommodation on offer here.
