About The Area

Rushmere St Andrew is considered one of the most sought after villages to the north-east outskirts of Ipswich, the County town of Suffolk. The village offers local amenities including a Church and a Public House. There are some fantastic walks through the countryside within the village and nearby schools include Rushmere Hall Primary School, Coppleston, Kesgrave and Northgate High Schools.

The town of Ipswich on the estuary of the River Orwell is approximately two and a half miles distant, which has undergone an extensive gentrification programme in recent years, mainly around the waterfront and has become a popular “commutable” town to London. Ipswich offers a wide variety of shopping, commercial and leisure facilities, which includes a full range of sports clubs and societies, restaurants and high street stores. There is an excellent choice of schools within both the state and private sectors which caters for all age groups. Woodbridge is approximately six and a half miles distant offering a further range of amenities and facilities.

RAIL SERVICES

Ipswich station is on the Greater Anglia main line, approximately 70 miles east of London Liverpool Street Station with a journey time from Ipswich of approximately 1 hour and 10 minutes.

LOCAL SCHOOLS

Primary Schools: Rushmere Hall Primary School, Sidegate Lane Primary School, Britannia Primary School, Broke Hall Community Primary School, Heath Primary School and Cedarwood Primary School.

Secondary Schools: St Albans Catholic High School, Northgate High School, Coppleston High School and Kesgrave High School.
