This brand new, modern-furnished Portland (40'x20') luxury park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow-style property. The home has an open plan layout, a modern kitchen with integrated appliances, comfortable living area and French doors leading onto the decking. There are three bedrooms and two bathrooms.

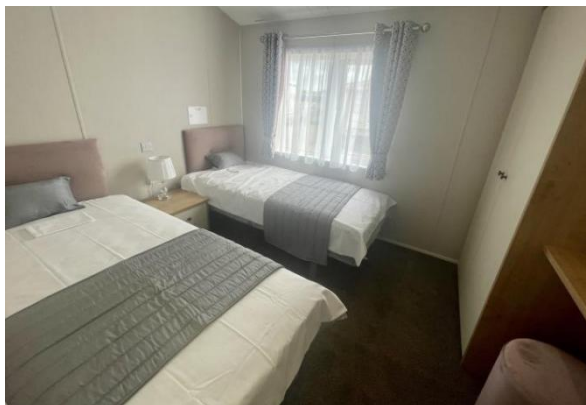

This 12-month leisure development is a small, established park. The tranquil location is surrounded by fields and countryside views, yet still close to amenities. The development is gated with CCTV, to provide added security. There is no age restriction here and the existing community is very welcoming. Residents have access to facilities including a bar, fitness centre and library.

The development is well located for exploring the Kent countryside. Ramsgate town and beach are 4.5 miles away with the historic town of Sandwich only 6 miles away. Local shops, doctors and train station can be found just 1 mile away in the village of Minister.

Age restriction: None
 Pet friendly: Yes
 Site fees: £5,250 per year
 12-month leisure licence
