

Torpoint, Cornwall, PL10

Price as listed

This brand new, modern-furnished (40'x20') luxury lodge is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy-to-maintain, bungalow-style property. The lodge has a modern fitted kitchen, a comfortable living area, three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The exterior enjoys elevated countryside views and decking with a hot tub.

This lovely holiday park is settled in a historic corner of Cornwall, with unspoilt panoramic views over Whitsand Bay. Owners can enjoy use of the leisure facilities on site, including an indoor heated swimming pool, bar and restaurant.

Owners can explore the hidden beaches, rural footpaths and historic architecture within, and around the development. Further afield you can find local fishing villages, souvenir shopping and devouring traditional home-made Cornish Pasties. Discover real working harbours, the daily caught seafood restaurants and, the traditional multi-coloured terraced homes with quirky local pubs squeezed in-between. This truly is an area for the discerning traveller, who is looking for that authentic flavour of the West-Country. The historic city of Plymouth is less than 10 miles away with its high street shopping and picturesque harbour.
