

Bedford, Bedfordshire, MK43

Price as listed

This pre-owned, vacant park home (24'x14') is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy-to-maintain, bungalow-style property. This home has a kitchen with hob and eye-level oven, leading to a dining area and living room. There is one double bedroom with fitted cupboards and a shower room. The home has a driveway and a private fenced garden with a shed and patio.

The park is surrounded by open countryside with the River Great Ouse running along the bottom of the park where residents can enjoy an abundance of wildlife and leisurely walks. The village of Paversham is just down the road with a local pub and church. The bus stop just outside the park entrance provides easy access into Bedford and there are excellent transport links to Woburn Abbey and Odell Castle.
