83 Torridge Avenue

Torquay, Torquay

The property lies within easy walking distance of key everyday facilities. A range of shops, eateries and local services are close by, and regular bus routes provide easy connections across Torquay and beyond. Local residents often highlight the area's proximity to the hospital, schools, doctors' surgery and community conveniences as major benefits of living on Torridge Avenue and in the surrounding streets. Families particularly value this location for its educational opportunities. Primary schooling options include Shiphay Learning Academy, just a short stroll from the doorstep. Secondary education is also highly accessible, with the renowned Torquay Boys' Grammar School and nearby Torquay Girls' Grammar School both within comfortable walking distance – making the property especially appealing to those looking for strong local school options. For commuting and recreation, the area benefits from excellent connectivity. Torbay Hospital is less than a mile away, and nearby main roads and regular bus services make travel into central Torquay, Paignton or towards the South Devon Expressway straightforward.
