Prescot Street, Aldgate, E1

£680,000

A large two-bed, two-bath apartment located on the third and fourth floors. The entrance hall has a large cloakroom and ample space for shoes and coats. On the upper floor, you are presented with a large open living and kitchen area that leads on to the living room that can be separated using the bi-folding door. From here you can access the two double bedrooms, both with inbuilt storage. The kitchen and bathrooms have been refurbished.

One Prescott Street is a Grade II listed Art Deco building by Ekins converted in the late 90's. A very sought after lift-served residential development with a 24/7 concierge service.

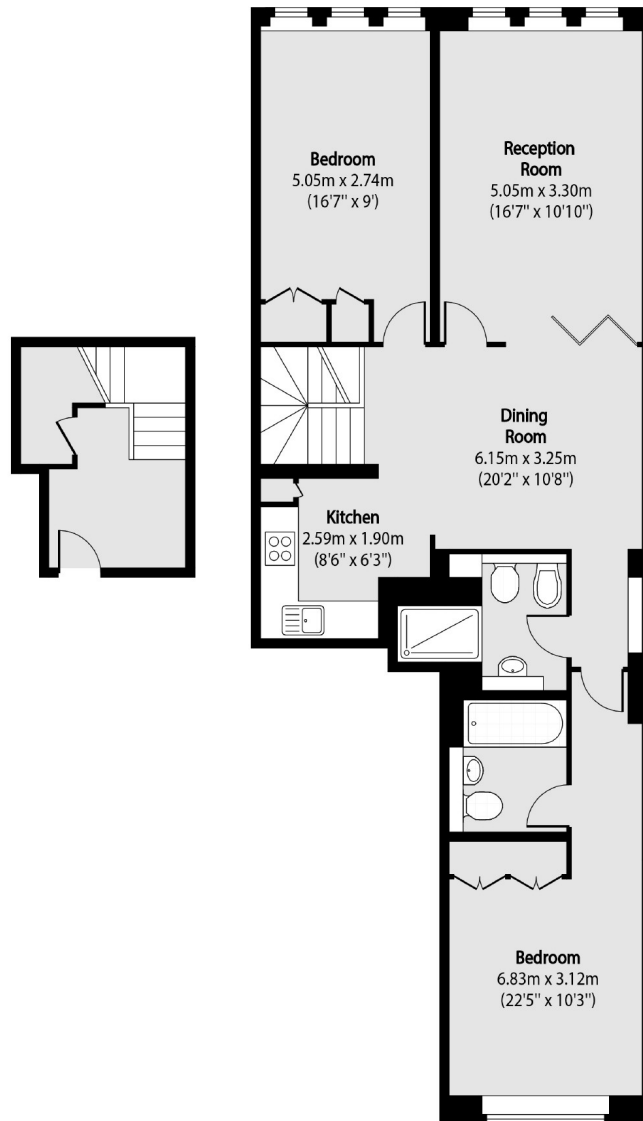

The surrounding area boasts plenty of local amenities, popular restaurants and bars. The property is a short walking distance to the famous St Katharine Docks, Tower Bridge and the Tower of London.

The flat is within convenient walking distance of The City, Liverpool Street, Wapping, Brick Lane, Spitalfields and Whitechapel Station, home to the recently opened Elizabeth Line.
