Whittington House, London, EC4R

£695,000

This large one bedroom flat (in excess of 850sqft), could easily be converted into a two bedroom flat, with a shaker style kitchen, wooden flooring and bespoke shelving and cupboards throughout. Located in the heart of the City of London, close to The Bloomberg arcade with its multiple bars and restaurants and One New Change shopping centre.

Whittington House was originally built as a school in 1832, this stunning Grade II listed building is famously known as the site of the former house of Richard "Dick" Whittington (c1354-1423), who was four times Lord Mayor of London and a member of Parliament.
The flat is in this quiet cobbled road moments moments from the heart of The City's financial district, easily accessible to Bank, Mansion House and Cannon Street Stations.
Shopping facilities nearby include a Waitrose and Sainsburys supermarket, and One New Change Shopping centre with an M&S foodstore. Five star hotels just a short stroll away include The Ned and Vintry and Mercer. The Barbican Centre and Borough Market are also within walking distance.

The nearest train station is Cannon Street, with Bank and Monument also close by with access to the Central, Northern, Circle and Hammersmith and City line.
