LOCATION

Nestled in the breathtaking landscapes of Lancashire's countryside, the quaint village of Wycoller offers a peaceful haven for those seeking a retreat from the hustle and bustle of modern life. Living in Wycoller means immersing oneself in a bygone era, where time seems to stand still amidst the charming cobblestone streets and historic stone cottages. The village's rich history is evident in its well-preserved architecture and ancient landmarks, including the picturesque Wycoller Hall and the tranquil ruins of the old packhorse bridge. Residents of Wycoller enjoy a tranquil way of life, with the gentle babble of the beck and the rustle of leaves providing a soothing backdrop to everyday living. Nature enthusiasts will delight in the abundance of walking trails and scenic vistas, with the rugged beauty of the surrounding countryside offering endless opportunities for exploration and relaxation. For those seeking modern conveniences, the nearby town of Colne and village of Barrowford provide a range of amenities, ensuring that all the essentials are within easy reach. With its timeless charm and unspoiled natural beauty, Wycoller is a hidden gem waiting to be discovered, offering a truly unique living experience for those who are drawn to its tranquil allure.

Wycoller Country Park, Trawden is one of the prettiest country parks in Lancashire. The area is famous for its association with the Brontë sisters who referred to many of the nearby landmarks in books such as Wuthering Heights and Jane Eyre. Wycoller Country Park is a mixture of woodland and farmland and has many footpaths leading to local beauty spots which include Bank House and Wycoller Beck.
