Aberdeen

Union Street Pavilion

Location

The Union Street Pavilion is located at the junction of Union Street and Union Terrace adjacent to the Edward VII statue and within close proximity to Jamieson & Carry the Jeweller, Chaophraya Thai Restaurant, HMV and Primark. Union Square Shopping Centre and Aberdeen Train Station are within walking distance.

Description

The Union Street Pavilion comprises a detached three storey building of steel frame construction incorporating glazed curtain walling and sedum roof.

Internally the pavilion has been finished to a high standard with Terrazzo flooring with integrated underfloor heating.

An impressive 5 metre ceiling height creates a sense of space at ground floor. The ceiling has integrated lighting throughout. The pavilion benefits from a passenger lift with toilets and storage being provided. Staff facilities and plant room are situated within the basement.

Access to the pavilion is provided from Union Terrace.

The pavilion has access to historic Victorian toilets which have been refurbished and repurposed creating a unique space.
