Pebblecroft

Pebblecroft is a charming and spacious five bedroom family home occupying a delightful plot extending to approximately 0.8 of an acre, located on the edge of Headley Heath within a designated 'Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty'.

In parts, the property dates back to the late 1800's whilst the accommodation is laid out across two floors. Internally and externally the property is very well presented offering a flexible layout that comprises of a large entrance hall with access to three large reception rooms, a modern and well equipped kitchen/breakfast room, a laundry room, a large workshop/boot room, three double bedrooms and two bathrooms.

On the first floor there are two further double bedrooms, an en-suite dressing room and a family bathroom.

Outside, the stunning gardens are a particular feature of Pebblecroft. Extending all in to approximately 0.8 of an acre, the garden and grounds offer seclusion and privacy. The part walled gardens enjoy a sunny aspect, south facing at the rear, with large lawns to front, side and rear. Lovely mature trees and hedges occupy the boundaries with very well stocked flower borders and water features elsewhere. To the front, an extensive driveway provides parking for numerous cars in addition to having a detached double length timber garage with workshop to the rear.
