Setting

Box Hill is a summit set high up in the glorious North Downs with delightful views and open countryside in abundance. It is managed primarily by the National Trust and offers great opportunities for the cycling, walking and riding enthusiast with extensive bridleways accessed nearby. There are local shops, a sub post office and doctor's surgery in the village, whilst further amenities can be found in the nearby towns of Dorking and Leatherhead. Dorking has and a good range of local shops, and sports centre and Dorking Halls for cinema and theatre. There are many restaurants in Dorking. Communication links to the area are excellent with the M25 giving access to London and the motorway network, whilst Epsom, Leatherhead and Dorking have mainline stations providing regular services to London Waterloo and Victoria. There is a good selection of schools both in the state sector - The Ashcombe and The Priory in Dorking and St John's School, Leatherhead, City of London Freeman's School, Ashted and Epsom College in the independent sectors.

Recreational activities include some of the best golf courses around at Beaverbrook, Walton Heath, RAC at Woodcote Park Country Park, Epsom and Tyrrells Wood. Other nearby villages include Walton-on-the-Hill which is a highly desirable and very popular Surrey village, with a village pond and village green in a beautifully unspoilt location high up on the North Downs. The village has an excellent range of local facilities for day-to-day needs including, shops, school, restaurants and popular pubs. Tadworth is a charming village in Surrey. Its strategic position allows for easy access to both road and rail connections, making it an ideal choice for those who value convenience and connectivity. The village of Tadworth is within easy reach and offers excellent transport links to London with the M25 motorway network also being easily accessible.
