Perched near the charming village of Shieldaig in Wester Ross, No. 8 Ardheslaig offers an idyllic escape. This home is part of a small, peaceful community, set just above the tranquil waters of Loch Beag, with breathtaking views stretching across to Redpoint beach.

Shieldaig, a picturesque village along the west coast, boasts a scenic main street that hugs the shoreline of Loch Shieldaig. The loch's deep waters have long served as a safe haven for seafaring vessels. In the village, you'll find a cozy shop, a welcoming hotel, a coffee and gift shop, and a primary school, with secondary education available in nearby Gairloch. Just an hour's drive away, Dingwall offers a wider range of amenities, including a major supermarket and a railway station.

The west coast is renowned for its mild climate, stunning coastline, and mesmerizing island vistas. The unspoilt landscape and traditional communities draw those in search of a lifestyle change or a serene second home, making No. 8 Ardheslaig the perfect base to explore this enchanting region. Shieldaig Island, a bird sanctuary under the care of the National Trust for Scotland, is teeming with wildlife, including sea eagles, seals, otters, pine martens, and even the occasional dolphin—easily spotted from the comfort of your cottage.
