This charming period family home has been lovingly modernised by the current owners and is presented in immaculate condition throughout. The impressive, yet welcoming entrance hall (with underfloor heating) leads to a bright open plan lounge sitting room, featuring a log burner, gorgeous bay window which boasts views over Roath recreational grounds. The ground floor continues with a generously sized utility/boot room, complete with built-in storage, a separate sink, side access and a convenient WC. At the heart of the house is a superb kitchen family room with shaker kitchen units, a central island, and room for a large dining table. Patio doors open from the kitchen into the rear garden, providing excellent indoor/outdoor flow for entertaining and family life. Upstairs, a bright landing with storage and a feature window overlooking the park serves four double bedrooms, as well as a beautifully appointed four-piece family bathroom, an additional shower room and a separate WC, offering flexibility for family living.

Outside, low maintenance, well-kept gardens with the rear garden featuring a large patio, lawn and rear decking. There is rear access, plus a good-sized garage for off-street parking and storage.

Located a short walk from popular local high streets and a selection of shops, cafes and amenities, making it a very convenient spot. The property also falls within the catchment for highly regarded local schools, making it an ideal family home.
