Gary Townsend at Paul Mason Associates offers a wonderful property set on Great Notley’s most prestigious turning, and only a short walk to the 50 acres of Discovery Park, this five bedroom three storey property offers a wealth of flexible living accommodation to fit any family size. Along the rear of the property is the Great Room, with solid fuel burner and benefitting from three sets of French doors opening to the rear garden creating a wonderful entertaining environment. A particular feature of property is the Retreat room with its double height glazed wall plus and vaulted ceiling. The master suite lies on the top floor of the property giving it a peaceful feel, whilst the other bedrooms and bathrooms can be found on the first floor. Finally, there is also the added bonus of the Games Room (converted garage) which could also be used a private study, or to meet clients due to its potential separate access.

The property itself lies within walking distance of all the Great Notley Village amenities, which includes a doctors surgery, veterinary practice, dental surgery, Tesco superstore, public house, hair salon, but to name a few. As previously mentioned, there is 50 acres of parkland close by, plus excellent road access to the A120 (leading to Stansted airport & M11), and A131 to Great Leighs racecourse and Chelmsford.
