The rare opportunity has arisen to purchase this spacious five bedroom detached house, situated in a charming semi-rural area in Nounsley. This impressive house sits on a generous 7.5-acre plot and boasts three picturesque fishing lakes as well as private secluded gardens.

Internally the main house features five double bedrooms providing ample accommodation for families or guests. Bedroom One benefits from an en-suite and there is a separate first floor bathroom suite for the family. The ground floor commences with a welcoming entrance hall providing access to the three reception rooms offering a versatile living space. There is a sizeable 'L' shaped kitchen, ground floor bathroom and conservatory.

Externally, the property benefits from a detached double garage and ample off road parking for numerous vehicles. To the rear, there is a secluded garden with mature hedged borders which includes a paved patio seating area and outbuilding/games room with services connected.

Within the 7.5 acres there are numerous outbuildings including a large detached barn, currently divided into five separate units which generate an income. There are additional outbuildings including w.c facilities for the fishery and storage units.

The surrounding landscape enhances the appeal of this property, offering a tranquil retreat close to the River Ter, while still being conveniently located near the amenities of Chelmsford.

In summary, this remarkable house presents a chance to own a substantial family home in a serene setting, complete with fishing lakes and expansive grounds. It is a must-see property to fully appreciate the house and grounds on offer.

Location

The property is located in the delightful village of Nounsley on the outskirts of Hatfield Peverel, which is steeped in history and surrounded by natural beauty, offering a tranquil retreat from the hustle and bustle of modern life.

Hatfield Peverel railway station is within easy access, offering regular services on the Greater Anglia line, with direct links to London Liverpool Street, making the village a popular choice for commuters to the capital, along with trains to Chelmsford and Colchester. The village is also conveniently located near major road networks, including the A12, a primary route connecting London and East Anglia.

There is a variety of dining and shopping options to satisfy every palate and preference. The village is home to a selection of charming pubs, cafes, and restaurants, including the highly regarded Blue

Strawberry Bistro.

St. Andrew's Junior School is centrally positioned within the village. Secondary schooling can be found nearby in the Towns of Witham and Maldon. There is also further secondary and grammar schooling in the cities of Chelmsford and Colchester. Whilst in the private sector there is New Hall and Felsted.

For nature lovers, there are an abundance of scenic walking trails and open spaces to explore. The village is historically significant due to the presence of the 11th century St. Andrew's Church, which stands on the site of a former Benedictine priory.

Whether you're drawn in by the sense of community, the stunning countryside, or the excellent schools, one thing's for sure, the village has got a whole lot to offer.
