DESCRIPTION

Luscombe Maye are delighted to bring to market for the first time this charming three bedroom character cottage, in the heart of the sought - after village of Harberton. Entering the cottage through the front garden, then a small hallway, you will find the lounge/ diner on your right, featuring a partly glazed door, an open hearth and front and rear widows showcasing the gardens.

To the left of the hall is the kitchen, featuring a sink and an oil - fired Rayburn stove. There is an understairs cupboard containing the electricity consumer unit, and beyond the kitchen is a store cupboard previously used as a pantry. Beyond this is a wet room, featuring a double spaced shower. Behind the kitchen is a conservatory giving access to the rear garden.

Ascending the stairs, you will find bedroom one on your right, with front and rear windows showcasing the gardens. Bedroom two and three both feature built - in wardrobes.

At the rear of the property there space for a greenhouse, which could be removed to allow for a patio space. There is a path to a large shed which contains the oil tank.
