DESCRIPTION

Luscombe Maye are delighted to bring to market this beautifully presented four-bedroom semi-detached home in the desirable village of Blackawton. Entering the property, the hallway opens into the living room complimented by a wood burner with exposed stone wall behind and dual aspect windows. Leading up a few steps the open plan dining/kitchen can easily accommodate a good size dining table with built-in units surrounding. The kitchen comprises matching floor and wall units with a space for a range of appliances; fridge/freezer, four-ring bottled gas hob, AGA and plumbing for washing machine. The spacious kitchen has an additional seating area with sliding doors onto the rear patio and a downstairs WC with access into the garden. Ascending the stairs, the first floor landing leads three double bedrooms, all generous in size and with far-reaching countryside views. A few more steps lead to the light and airy master bedroom that benefits from a south facing balcony with outlooks over Blackawton countryside and garden below. There is a family bathroom servicing the bedrooms fitted with wet room shower unit, WC, hand basin and built-in storage. The south facing garden enjoys a patio area perfect for alfresco dining that joins the lawn bordered by mature plants and shrubs. Situated at the end of the garden you will find a stone garden room with outlooks onto the neighbouring fields. The garage can be access from the garden also. At the front of the property there is parking for two cars situated in front of the garage. Cross Cottage is a fantastic opportunity to make significant improvements to a property in a desirable location with the inherent benefits of a large garden, driveway parking and a detached garage.
