DESCRIPTION Luscombe Maye are delighted to bring to market this semi-detached home which offers a harmonious blend of traditional architecture and modern living. This property offers countryside views, driveway parking, and versatile living accommodation. The property includes six bedrooms and a spacious garden, providing ample opportunities for outdoor enjoyment. Inside, the ground floor features an expansive reception room with hardwood flooring and recessed lighting, offering a welcoming space for relaxation and entertainment. A conveniently located shower-room enhances the practicality of the ground floor layout. This floor also provides a versatile double bedroom with en-suite WC. On the first floor, a well-appointed kitchen/dining room combines rustic and contemporary elements, featuring exposed dark-stained wooden beams, and ample storage. Natural light floods the space, and the dining area leads to a balcony with breathtaking countryside views. This floor also includes a study, perfect for working from home or a craft area, and a comfortable bedroom, ensuring flexible living arrangements. There is also a large storage cupboard, and WC. The second floor hosts four generously sized double bedrooms, each with unique charm and architectural elements such as exposed beams and wooden flooring. These rooms benefit from ample natural light. The main bathroom serves the bedrooms, and is generous in size and natural light. With its unique charm and desirable features, this property is a must-see for anyone looking for a rural living feel, whilst still being well connected.
