Nestled in the heart of the picturesque Heyrod Village, this stunning three-bedroom, stone-built end-terraced home boasts breathtaking long-range views over open countryside. Offering a perfect blend of period charm and modern convenience, this deceptively spacious family home enjoys an elevated position, providing privacy and tranquility while remaining close to local amenities, well-regarded schools, transport links, and scenic countryside walks.

With approximately 1,200 sq. ft of thoughtfully designed living space, the property welcomes you with an inviting entrance hall leading into a beautifully presented lounge, which seamlessly opens into a bright and airy dining room and a well-appointed kitchen. A useful cellar provides additional storage space or potential.

The first floor hosts three generously sized double bedrooms, each offering stunning views and ample space for furnishings. The family bathroom ensures both style and practicality.

Externally, the home features a charming stone-walled forecourt garden to the front, adding to its curb appeal. To the rear, an enclosed yard offers a private outdoor space, with a gated entrance leading to a driveway and a substantial detached double-width garage, measuring an impressive 28ft in depth, complete with electricity and a pit—ideal for car enthusiasts or additional storage. A decked seating area to the rear offers an idyllic setting to relax and take in the uninterrupted countryside views.

This exceptional home is a rare find, combining character, space, and spectacular surroundings. A must-see for those seeking a blend of rural charm and modern convenience.
