An 18th century, semi detached cottage, part of the former Old Hazlemere Post Office, which moved in the 1930s. This spacious family house with period charm and features, has been completely updated into a stunning home, which requires a viewing to be appreciated. On entering the hall you are immediately wowed by the character and charm, and then once you enter the main house you are wowed by the amazing open plan kitchen/dining/family room with underfloor heating. The kitchen has been fitted with shaker style units, integrated full length fridge and freezer, an island with butler sink and pull out spray mixer tap, Inglenook fireplace with log burner, seating area and full length heritage double glazed windows and French doors to the garden. Off the kitchen is a utility room with wall and base units and plumbing for washing machine and tumble dryer, plus there is a cloakroom fitted with a two piece suite. Downstairs is completed with a cosy living room with feature gas fire. Upstairs, are two double bedrooms and a luxury family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a great size and benefits from a walk-in-wardrobe and the second bedroom has built in cupboards. The beautiful bathroom is fitted with a four piece suite comprising of low level W.C., wash hand basin with vanity under, roll top bath and separate shower cubicle, plus underfloor heating. Outside, to the rear, is a fabulous, south facing, level garden with an initial patio and then laid to lawn, plus to the rear there is a shingled area and gated side access. The rear garden also benefits from a summerhouse and large shed, both of which have power, and the garden offers a great deal of privacy and seclusion. To the front of the house there is shingled off street parking. The property also benefits from a security system with cameras. This is a stunning, period property, of which an internal viewing must be had!
