SITUATION

Kingswear sits on the sunny east bank of the River Dart opposite the historic port of Dartmouth and home to the Britannia Royal Naval College. The village is one of the most picturesque in the South Hams offering two popular pubs, a tapas wine bar, coffee shop, post office, village shop, primary school and a church. Kingswear is popular with the sailing community and offers excellent marina facilities, deep-water moorings and is home to the Royal Dart Yacht Club. There is plenty to do in the area with the South West footpath on your doorstep, an abundance of beaches, coves and golf courses nearby. A seasonal steam train service operates to Paignton whilst a regular bus service links to the towns in Torbay. A 5-minute passenger or car ferry ride and you arrive in the historic town of Dartmouth with its wide range of shops and restaurants. The South Devon Expressway (A380) is 12 miles away and provides speedy access to Exeter and the country beyond whilst main line rail links to London Paddington can be made in Totnes and Newton Abbot.

DESCRIPTION

Longford Cottage is an attractive, red brick dwelling situated in a prime position in the heart of the picturesque village of Kingswear and only a stones throw from the River Dart. The property is currently divided into two separate apartments but was once the stables for Longford House. Longford House was home to French Naval Officers during WWII including Philippe de Gaulle, the General's son, who was a junior officer at the time and was visited by his father. Property on Priory Street rarely comes to the market so Longford Cottage presents a unique opportunity to purchase two self-contained apartments or the opportunity create a singular residence.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door leads directly from Priory Street to the entrance hall which has a cupboard for storing shoes and coats. Accessed from the hall is a ground floor bedroom which could also be utilised as a study with a window overlooking Priory Street. Stair rise to the first-floor landing and the kitchen/dining room which has a range of floor and wall mounted units and space for an electric oven, fridge/freezer, washing machine and tumble dryer. The cosy sitting room features a characterful, exposed beam and window overlooking Priory Street. Next to the sitting room is a bedroom which will accommodate at least a double bed and features built in wardrobes and wonderful vaulted ceiling. Accessed from the landing is a smartly finished shower room with enclosed shower, WC, wash hand basin and heated towel rail. The shower room provides a wonderful view of the River Dart and across to the Britannia Royal Naval College.

OUTSIDE

To the side of the property is a designated parking space.
