DESCRIPTION

Ferry View offers a tranquil riverside retreat in one of Dartmouth's most coveted locations, where the gentle lapping of the River Dart creates a constant, soothing soundtrack. This charming two-bedroom apartment sits adjacent to the historic Bayards Cove, with its medieval stone quay and timber-framed houses, providing an authentic glimpse into the town's maritime heritage. The apartment's private balcony creates the perfect vantage point for taking in the ever-changing river views, where sailing boats drift lazily past and the Lower Ferry chums through the sparkling waters toward Kingswear on the opposite bank. Both bedrooms benefit from ensuite facilities, ensuring comfort and privacy for guests, while the secluded private courtyard offers an additional outdoor space for quiet relaxation away from the riverside bustle. Ferry View a highly successful holiday let, drawing visitors back year after year to experience waterside living in this picturesque corner of South Devon.

ACCOMMODATION

The front door opens to a welcoming entrance hall with ample storage for shoes and coats, leading seamlessly into the bright and spacious sitting/dining room. This charming living space showcases original character features including a beautiful stone-set hearth with lintel and exposed wooden beams, while patio doors open onto the private balcony with its wonderful views across the River Dart to Kingswear - the perfect spot to sit and watch life unfold on the water below.
