THE PROPERTY

Built in 2002 of brick and stone under a thatched roof with part rendered elevations, this unique curved house offers very spacious accommodation with an integral garage as well as a car port and low-maintenance rear garden.

ACCOMMODATION

On the ground floor is a very spacious living room with feature gas fire, the kitchen is of particular note being very sizeable and ideal for a family or large gatherings with plenty of space to dine. A separate utility is off the kitchen with an external access to the garden. Off the central hallway is a WC and stairs rising to the first floor where there are four double bedrooms, (two of which are ensuite) and a family bathroom.

The property is very well presented with the majority of rooms having Thomas Sanderson bespoke shutters fitted and high quality kitchen, bathrooms and flooring throughout.

OUTSIDE

The rear garden is a manageable size and mainly paved and gravelled making this an ideal lock up and leave or someone who does not want to spend their time managing a large garden. However, there are raised planters with ornamental magnolia and established shrubs making this an attractive and private oasis to sit out and enjoy the South Easterly aspect. An attached single garage gives parking for one vehicle, whilst a gated car port allows a second parking space.

SITUATION

Charmouth is a highly sought after village lying on the beautiful Jurassic Coast and only some three miles to the east of Lyme Regis. The village offers excellent local amenities, a popular primary school and a Blue Flag beach with access to the stunning coastline and coastal footpaths.

SERVICES

Gas fired central heating, mains water and drainage. Thatched roof needs replacing.
