THE PROPERTY

Guppys Lodge is a very attractive and highly individual, detached, former farmhouse with extensive gardens and grounds, occupying a peaceful setting with stunning views over the rolling countryside to the sea beyond. The house has a very interesting history, it was originally a shelter for pilgrims bound for nearby Whitchurch Canonorum. The oldest part of the farmhouse is believed to date back from the 16th century (a Beer stone pilgrim can still be seen carved into the original inglenook). Over the years it has been subject to enlargement and alterations, allegedly earning its keep as a blanket factory, a goat sanctuary and, more recently, as a hobby farm and smallholding.

Under the previous ownership it was saved from near dereliction and renovated and extended to include a stunning timber extension in 2000. This extension is built of larch with Pilkington thermal glass panels and designed by the leading timber building specialist Roderick James. During the current ownership, since 2014, a whole number of further improvements have been carried out including upgrading of the bathroom and shower rooms.

The many impressive features include oil-fired central heating, limestone floor tiles, bespoke Devol solid wood painted kitchen with oak worktops, oil-fired Aga and attractive quality sanitaryware.

The host of character features include exposed beams, exposed stone and beamed fireplace, window seats, vaulted beamed and panelled ceilings, cottage doors, colour-washed stone and a rolltop bath.

All the principal rooms are mainly south-facing, enjoying the wonderful views to the sea.

Briefly, the accommodation extends to:

Ground floor - Reception hall, utility, cloakroom, playroom, study, open-plan kitchen/dining room, living room with floor to ceiling windows and doors plus vaulted beamed ceiling etc.
First floor - Landing, principal bedroom with access to balcony, four further bedrooms (or three bedrooms plus study), bathroom/shower room, shower room.

OUTSIDE

The lovely extensive gardens and grounds are a further feature.

The ponds and dry riverbed were designed and built by an RHS gold medal winning team. The south-facing deck runs the entire length of the house. There is woodland, orchard meadow and paddock.

Guppys Lodge is approached off a quiet country lane via a long driveway. At the end of the drive is a stone-built period barn providing garaging for one car and incorporating a mezzanine storage area. The barn has potential for conversion, subject to any necessary planning consents.

There is extensive parking and behind the barn is a large timber garden store.

SITUATION

Fishpond Bottom is a rural hamlet in the heart of the Marshwood Vale and within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). Although enjoying a wonderful, peaceful country setting, it is far from isolated, being within easy reach of Charmouth and the Jurassic Coast, the historic coastal resort of Lyme Regis, the market town of Axminster (with a mainline rail service to London) and the thriving market town of Bridport. There is an excellent choice of junior and senior schools nearby.

SERVICES
