In the charming village of Thorncombe, this delightful semi-detached house built in the late 1800's, of local stone and brick, on Chard Street offers a perfect blend of character and spacious living. The property boasts two inviting reception rooms, ideal for family life.

The home features three well-proportioned bedrooms, and a bathroom, providing ample space for families or those seeking a comfortable guest room. The gardens wrap-around the house with areas to sit and enjoy the village aspect and view towards the church and there is a useful brick outhouse with power and light. At the rear leading off the dining room is an attractive Indian sandstone patio.

Thorncombe is known for its thriving village community and local amenities such as village shop, primary school, church, and village swimming pool. The area is perfect for those who appreciate a close-knit community atmosphere while still enjoying the tranquillity of village life set in an AONB with wonderful countryside walks nearby.

Parking is readily available on street with unrestricted streets close by. This property presents an excellent opportunity to become part of a vibrant community in a picturesque setting. Do not miss the chance to make this charming house your new home.
