THE PROPERTY

Lower Eype Farm is a stunning detached contemporary dwelling with extensive gardens and grounds adjoining open countryside with wonderful views, in the highly sought after Jurassic Coast village of Eype. It is newly completed and offers many highly individual design details and high energy credentials.

The contemporary, planned, accommodation is very special and principally south-facing enjoying wonderful views over the surrounding countryside, taking in the well known viewpoints of Thorncombe Beacon and Eype Down.

The impressive specification includes air source underfloor heating, solar and PV panels with battery and linked to grid, aluminium powder coated windows and bi-folding doors, polished concrete floors, integral contemporary electric convector flame-effect fire, fitted kitchen with electric oven and LPG gas hob plus underfloor piping ready for extractor, low voltage lighting and LED skirting lighting, contemporary bathroom and shower fittings.

The many interesting design details include a split-level living room/kitchen/dining room with floor to ceiling cantilever bi-folding doors, large roof lantern, panoramic window to kitchen, principal bedroom with bi-folding doors, eye-level windows to reception hall and a stunning liquid metal front entrance door.

A further big selling feature are the extensive gardens and grounds, including a paddock and a large barn suitable for a whole variety of purposes (potential for conversion subject to planning consent).

Benefits from PV solar panels and underfloor heating.

Drone video available to view online.

OUTSIDE

The property is set back and approached over a gravel driveway leading to extensive parking.

Substantial barn and small store.

Delightful gardens and grounds, principally down to lawn together with a paddock and pig shed, interspersed with a number of trees and shrubs.

SITUATION

Lower Eype Farm is located in a peaceful, tucked away, position within easy reach of the Eype Beach, some ten minutes' walk, which forms part of the stunning Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site. The village rates highly amongst the most desirable addresses in the West Dorset area of outstanding natural beauty (AONB), owing to its glorious scenery, friendly year-round community, picturesque properties and proximity to the sea. Amenities include a church, village hall and a pub and the thriving historic town of Bridport is within only a few miles, with a broad range of shopping, leisure and cultural experiences to suit all tastes. Wonderful walks can be easily reached from the property, including the South West Coast Path.
