THE PROPERTY

A charming and very spacious detached period house of cobb and stone construction with part-rendered elevations under a thatched roof. The property is in need of renovation throughout including re-thatching and offers fantastic potential to create a beautiful home in an idyllic rural setting with grounds of about 1.4 acres.

Accommodation briefly comprises Large kitchen breakfast room with a Rayburn stove. leading into a spacious sitting room with inglenook fireplace and exposed ceiling beams. Downstairs bathroom and conservatory to the rear (which has planning permission but not listed building consent) Upstairs are three double bedrooms and a bathroom.

OUTSIDE

The property is accessed via an unmade road/bridleway, which has been used by the family since 1977 and a statement of truth can be supplied for the lack of rights of way on the title. Enjoying lovely views from the rear of the property over it's grounds to farmland beyond. The whole plot extends to approximately 1.4 acres of land including the garden and two sloping paddocks below the house.

SITUATION

Just under a mile's drive or walk from the lovely village of Thorncombe village centre, with its community run shop/post office/cafe. The village also benefits from a primary school, church and active village hall, where a number of clubs can be enjoyed creating a great community. To find out more, please visit www.thorncombe.com. Thorncombe lies in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, offering numerous walks and bridleways. For greater facilities Chard and Crewkerne are within 5 and 7 miles respectively, with the latter enjoying a Waitrose supermarket and mainline rail link to Exeter and London Waterloo. The Jurassic coast is also readily accessible with Lyme Regis being approximately 10 miles south-west of the property.

SERVICES and INFORMATION

Mains water and electric, oil fired central heating, private septic tank in grounds of the property installed in the 1990's. A wood burning stove is fitted in the sitting room- we cannot confirm if was installed to current regulations, so for safety it must be assumed not and replaced with an appropriate alternative.

The property was extended in 1993 with planning permission but not listed building consent.
