SITUATION

Enjoying a delightful semi-rural setting in the hamlet of Harcombe on the Dorset/Devon border. Uplyme, 2 miles away, has facilities including a Post Office/shop/petrol station, church, school, village hall with cricket pavilion and play area and a friendly pub with a delightful beer garden. Just 3 miles away is the highly sought after and picturesque town of Lyme Regis on the stunning Jurassic Coast. The town offers convenience and bespoke shopping as well as good day to day amenities, health centre, well regarded primary and secondary schooling, library and a charming independent theatre. Lyme has a fantastic beach with golden sands, shallow waters and the famous Cobb. The whole area is designated as an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) and has excellent walking opportunities right on the doorstep.

SERVICES

Mains electricity and water. Electric infrared heating. Smart water system. Shared septic tank.

VIEWINGS

Strictly by appointment through the sole agents, Stags Bridport.

DIRECTIONS

From Bridport follow the A35 towards Axminster. On reaching Romans Hill and just before the Devon sign, turn left into Red Lane and at the crossroads turn left into Harcombe Road and follow along the lane for approximately 0.6 miles. Harcombe House will be seen on the right.
