FRASER & WHEELER

Situated in the heart of the village this delightful period cottage offers a great location close to the village amenities, regular bus services and there are endless miles of beautiful country lanes to explore. The cottage offers well proportioned accommodation with uPVC double glazed windows and doors and gas central heating with radiators to all principal rooms. It offers period charm with a quality wood burner adding to the cosy feel in the sitting room, exposed floorboards to some of the first floor and an open cast-iron fireplace in one of the bedrooms. Unusually for a period cottage in the village, Glass Cottage has the benefit of a parking space and the garden is a particular delight with substantial patio area and secluded lawn garden with fruit trees.

Kenton is a popular village with an active community. It is well-known as the location for Powderham Castle with its deer, walks through its grounds and farm shop with post office. Other facilities include renowned restaurant, village hall, church and primary school. A regular bus service runs to both Exeter and Dawlish. There is a cycle path along the estuary to Exeter's Quay via numerous pubs, with beaches at Dawlish and Teignmouth only a few miles away. Starcross has a branch line railway station which links to Exeter St Davids and London plus Newton Abbot and Plymouth to the south.
