

214 LOWER VICKERS STREET MANCHESTER, M40 7LJ

£1,700 PCM

Victoria Mill is a Grade II* listed nineteenth century cotton spinning mill, built alongside the Rochdale Canal. This beautiful building has been restored to create a tasteful living environment whilst that retains the buildings original charm. The staircase curls up through the chimney which makes for a grand entrance and the flat itself has been renovated to high standards; carpeted throughout, with spacious well thought out rooms. The property is fully-furnished and the large windows afford the apartment plenty of light. The property further benefits from an ample number of parking spaces around the Mill and the Northern Quarter is just a canal walk away. Available 24.09.24
