Built in 1922, this charming house offers the perfect blend of character and modern convenience, ideally located in a secluded driveway among similar characterful semi-detached and detached homes. Just a short stroll from Reigate town centre and Reigate train station, this property enjoys an enviable position.

The house has been meticulously refurbished to enhance its original charm while incorporating modern upgrades. The kitchen and bathroom have been beautifully updated, and additional double glazing has been installed. Despite these improvements, the house retains many original features, including elegant wooden floors and classic fireplaces.

Upon entering, you are welcomed by a spacious entrance hall that seamlessly flows into the lounge and dining areas. The highlight of this home is the expansive living/kitchen area at the rear, which opens onto a very private garden. This outdoor space is perfect for children's playtime and for entertaining guests.

For families, the generous proportions of the double bedrooms offer ample space. Outside, there is enough parking for two or three cars, adding to the convenience.

The location is truly ideal, with a short walk bringing you to the heart of Reigate. Here, you will find an excellent mix of cafes, bars, restaurants, high street shops, and major employers. The property is also close to highly regarded schools, including Holmesdale School and Reigate Grammar School, making it perfect for families.
