Tucked away in a peaceful North Reigate cul-de-sac, this exceptional detached family home offers a rare combination of classic 1960's charm and cutting-edge interior design. The property has been thoughtfully and extensively modernised to create a versatile, light-filled living space that caters effortlessly to the demands of modern family life. Throughout the home, attention to detail is evident in every finish.

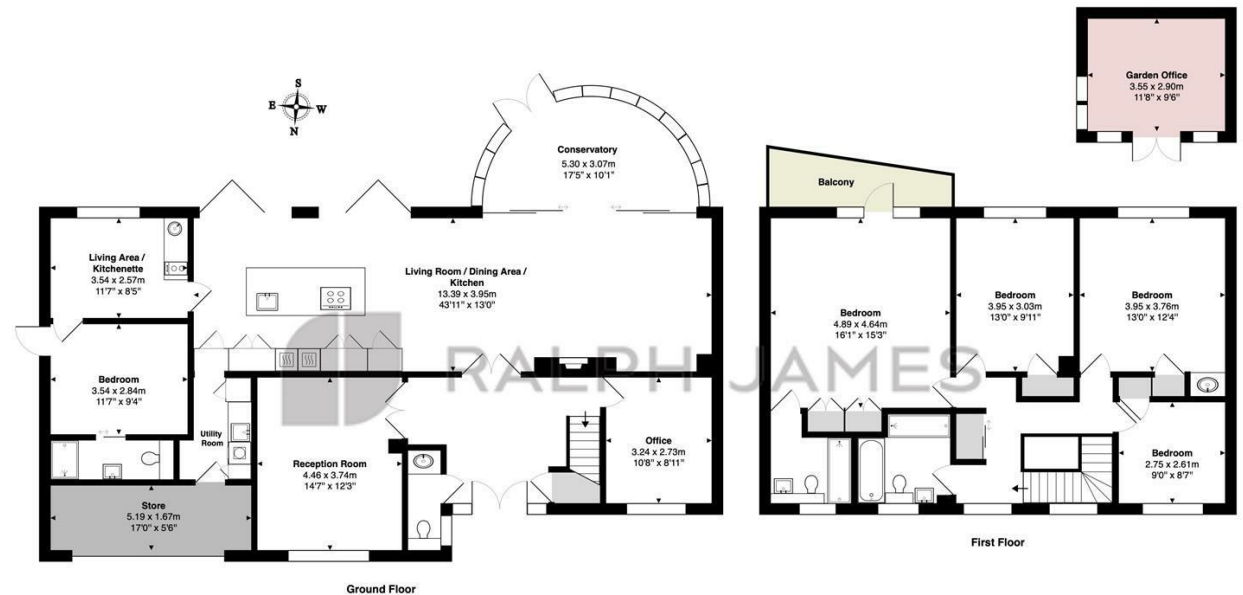

As you step inside, you're greeted with a sense of space, warmth and sophistication. The spacious hallway opens through double doors into a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and living area – the true heart of the home. This expansive space is designed for both everyday family living and entertaining, with a contemporary, high-spec kitchen featuring sleek cabinetry and a large, sociable central island. Bi-fold doors flood the room with natural light and seamlessly connect the indoors with the south-facing garden, creating a perfect flow for indoor-outdoor.

The property offers four generously proportioned bedrooms upstairs, including a principal suite with a stylish en suite shower room and a balcony with views over the garden. Downstairs, a self-contained one-bedroom annex offers a superb level of flexibility and adapts to your needs.

At the rear, a purpose-built garden room provides the ideal space for a home office, studio, gym or teenage retreat – perfect for year-round use.
