Park House offers unique, luxury apartments in Reigate, blending historical charm with modern design. With bespoke communal hallways, high-end finishes, and some private outdoor spaces, it provides an intimate living environment near trendy restaurants, cafes, and shops.

Park House presents a unique collection of converted apartments, situated in the lively and highly desirable neighborhood of Reigate.

These apartments offer a distinctive living experience by harmonizing historical charm with contemporary design. Each unit has been meticulously crafted and renovated to provide a personalized and unique living space, setting it apart from traditional apartment complexes.

Upon entering our apartments, you'll be greeted by artistically designed communal hallways, featuring bespoke artwork by local artist @samtart. Inside, you'll find sleek cabinetry, designer fixtures, and high-end finishes that add a touch of luxury, creating a comfortable and stylish living environment. Some units also include private outdoor spaces for added relaxation.

The building's limited size and number of units are intentionally designed to foster an intimate living atmosphere, making it easy to feel at home. Conveniently located within walking distance of trendy restaurants, cafes, and shops, Park House perfectly balances convenience with comfort.
