LOVE THE JOURNEY

Deepdale, Brompton On Swale

Nestled in the peaceful countryside, this expansive bungalow offers a unique blend of nostalgic charm and modern potential. Ideal for families, nature lovers, or those seeking a serene retreat, the bungalow features cosy, vintage interiors complemented by a rustic wood-burning stove and large windows framing picturesque views.

The outbuildings provide ample space for storage or creative projects, while the spacious conservatory invites year-round enjoyment of the lush surroundings. With its vast green space, mature trees, and proximity to Brompton on Swale and Scorton, this property is perfect for those looking to personalise their dream home in a tranquil setting.

The site which reaches over 1.5 acres is enough to enjoy a multitude of uses from its former life as a caravan site to even keeping ponies!

coffees or evening drinks.

Welcome home...

As you drive down the private road and approach the property, the first thing you'll notice is the expansive green space surrounding the home. The large outbuildings on the property, once utilised for a caravan site, offer plenty of space for storage or the possibility of conversion into additional living areas or workshops. The vastness of the land invites opportunities for gardening, outdoor activities, or even further development to suit your lifestyle needs.

Stepping inside, the bungalow exudes a quaint and nostalgic charm. The living room, with its vintage décor, provides a cosy setting perfect for quiet evenings at home. The additional sitting room features a rustic wood-burning stove, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere during colder months. Large windows throughout the home frame picturesque views of the surrounding landscape, allowing natural light to flood the rooms and bringing the beauty of the outdoors in.

The property features a spacious and inviting conservatory, perfect for enjoying the surrounding greenery year-round. This bright and airy space allows you to relax and soak in the natural light while offering panoramic views of the expansive gardens. Whether used as a tranquil retreat or a lively gathering spot for family and friends, the conservatory adds significant charm and versatility to this delightful bungalow.
