

HURGILL ROAD

RICHMOND

LOVE PROPERTY.

LOVE THE JOURNEY

Hurgill Road, Richmond

Located in the peaceful landscape of Richmond, North Yorkshire, this lovely lodge offers an idyllic retreat for those seeking a break away from home, in the beautiful countryside. With three double bedrooms, including one en-suite, and a main bathroom, the lodge is designed to provide ample space and luxury for families and groups.

This property is a holiday lodge only and cannot be used as a permanent residence.

Your lodge is a gateway to the Yorkshire Dales, a hub for tourism, drawing in visitors with its rich history, stunning landscapes, and vibrant local culture. The proximity to the Yorkshire Dales offers endless opportunities for hiking, cycling, and exploring charming towns and villages. The area's natural beauty and recreational activities make it a popular destination year-round.

At the heart of the lodge there's an open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area, which creates an open and inviting atmosphere. The kitchen is modern and well-equipped, ideal for preparing meals to be enjoyed around the family dining table. Adjacent to the dining area is a cosy living space centred around a log burner, making it a perfect spot to relax and unwind after a day of exploring.

There are three double bedrooms within the lodge, one equipped with an en suite shower room. There is also a family bathroom and utility room within the lodge.

One of the lodge's standout features is its sizable decking area, which offers stunning views of the surrounding site and countryside beyond. It's an ideal place for outdoor dining, a morning coffee, or enjoying the sunshine.

Purchasing this lodge not only provides a relaxing holiday home but also a great investment opportunity. The lodge can be fully managed by Together Travel, ensuring hassle-free ownership. You have the flexibility to stay as often as you like throughout the year, making it a versatile option for personal use and rental income.
