A Rare Georgian Gem in Liverpool's Historic Quarter

Welcome to 14 Catharine Street – a truly remarkable four-bedroom end-of-terrace townhouse nestled in the heart of Liverpool's much-admired Georgian Quarter. This elegant residence blends period charm with contemporary finesse, having undergone an extensive and tasteful refurbishment within the last decade.

Spanning five expansive floors, this property is one of only two homes on the street to feature windows on every stairwell landing, flooding the interior with natural light and accentuating the home's graceful proportions and striking architectural details.

Accommodation Overview:

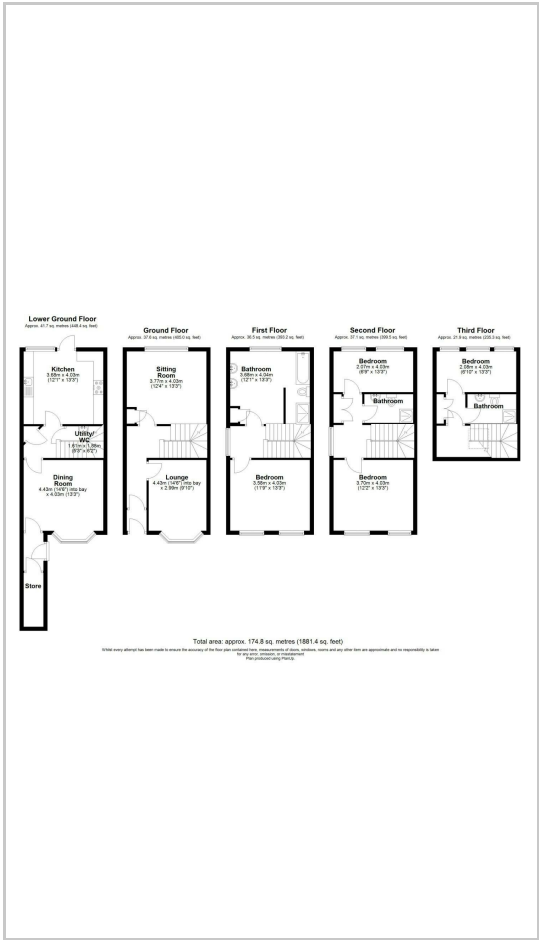

Ground Floor: Step through a welcoming entrance hall into two refined reception rooms, perfect for entertaining or relaxing in sophisticated comfort.
