Location

Ullesthorpe is a small village and civil parish situated in the Harborough District of Leicestershire. Located approx. 10 miles north of Rugby, Ullesthorpe is within easy access of the M1, M69, and M6. It is noted for its historic background with a mill, disused railway station, and traces of a medieval settlement evident on the edge of the village. Local amenities include a primary school, post office, village shop, butchers, doctor's surgery, hairdressers, and garden centre. In addition, there is a congregational church, two public houses, and a golf course attached to the Ullesthorpe Court Hotel.

Ground Floor

The property opens into a charming, open plan sitting/dining room with dual aspect windows to both the front and rear aspect, flagstone flooring and an exposed wooden ceiling with characterful wooden beams. The focal point to the room being two attractive, exposed brick-built chimney breasts and feature fireplaces, one with a log burner inset and the other currently being used as a log store. Brace and latch doors provide access to a useful understairs storage cupboard, as well as the kitchen and to the staircase which rises to the first floor. The kitchen has a continuation of the flagstone flooring and is fitted with a variety of white shaker style wall and base kitchen units, including glass display cabinets and drawers, with complementary wooden work surfaces over. There are exposed ceiling timbers along with a stable door which gives access to the garden. Fitted appliances include a double oven, a four-ring gas hob with extractor hood above and space with plumbing for a washing machine and fridge/freezer.

First Floor

From the landing with boasts further ceiling beams, stairs rise to the second floor and doors lead to a double bedroom with window overlooking the front aspect which has delightful views over the historic mill. There are exposed ceiling timbers and a storage cupboard. From the landing there is access to a spacious family bathroom with deco patterned floor tiles, part tongue and groove panelling to the walls and three brace and latch cupboards, one of which has space and plumbing for a washing machine. The bathroom is fitted with a white suite comprising of a wash hand basin, WC and panelled bath with glass shower screen and shower over.

Second Floor

There are two further double bedrooms on the second floor one with painted ceiling timbers, hanging space for clothes and fitted shelving and one currently being used as an office and snug.

Outside

To the front of the property there is on street parking. The rear garden is particularly low maintenance with pebbled areas edged with cobblestones, established shrubs and trees, pergola and enclosed by close board fencing. There is a brick-built outbuilding to the side of which, is a sink and tap along with a large wooden workshop which is insulated and has light and power, currently being used as a gym but has multiple uses and could alternatively be used as a home office.
