Location

Dunton Bassett is a desirable village with a popular public house and Chinese restaurant, a primary school, village hall and All Saints church. The village is accessed off the main A426 with Lutterworth (4 miles approx.) and Broughton Astley (1.5 miles approx.) where a larger selection of amenities can be found. The village is well placed for motorway access in Lutterworth (M1 Junction 20) and a 50-minute high speed train service to Euston Station.

Ground Floor

The approach to this delightful period property is via a stone archway to the left-hand side of the cottage where there is a pretty courtyard, and the wooden door leads into the entrance hall. The lovely country kitchen has been sympathetically decorated with a terracotta tiled floor and base and wall fitted cupboards with space for appliances and a Belfast sink with a view to the rear courtyard. A large open arch leads you through to the dining area, where the tiled floor continues and features an antique style radiator under the window, an adjacent stable door provides access to the rear garden. A stripped doorway leads into a lounge area with its original fireplace with wood burning stove and stripped pine floorboards, a fitted cupboard sits in the recess.

First Floor

The original stripped wooden staircase leads to a landing area off which the charming double bedroom is situated with a wooden floor and period fireplace. The bathroom overlooks the rear of the property and has a roll top bath with claw feet, a pedestal wash basin and WC.

Outside

The stable door takes leads you into a delightful, paved courtyard with seating area, the shrub borders and climbers make it an attractive private garden space.
