Location

Shawell is a pretty village comprising of a mix of character cottages and more substantial homes together with working arable farms, church, village hall and The White Swan, a traditional public house with an excellent restaurant. The village is surrounded by rolling countryside which would appeal to anybody interested in country living. Shawell is situated approximately four miles north east of Rugby and three miles south of the market town of Lutterworth, where a wide range of amenities can be found in both towns. Rugby offers a wide selection of independent and high street shops, restaurants, and leisure facilities, including Elliott's Field and Junction One retail park, whilst Lutterworth offers many amenities including an abundance of shops and supermarkets, including Morrisons and Waitrose. There are numerous restaurants, pubs and wine bars and a number of hotels including a traditional coaching inn. The schooling in Lutterworth is very popular with a number of highly regarded schools including Lutterworth High School and Lutterworth College. Shawell is well placed for the commuter with good road links and easy access to the A14, M1 and M6. Rugby mainline station offers a high-speed train service to London Euston which takes just under 50 minutes. The village is also equidistant between East Midlands and Birmingham International Airports.

Ground Floor

The property opens into a welcoming entrance hall, with black and white Minton floor tiles, stairs rising to the first floor and doors leading to the ground floor accommodation, along with a useful understairs storage cupboard. The very spacious sitting room is located to the front of the property, with the focal point of the room being a stone fireplace with open fire inset. The property is flooded with natural light with a large bay window to the front and a window to the side elevation. Double doors lead through to an impressive open plan kitchen/dining room, this fabulous space is the hub of the home and is ideal for family gatherings or entertaining guests. The standout feature being bi fold doors which open out to the rear garden and provide wonderful views over the open countryside. This light and airy space has three Velux skylights and a large window which also enjoys views over open fields. There is tiling to the floor, which extends through to the utility room, and a built-in larder cupboard. The kitchen is fitted with a range of light oak base and eye level units, incorporating numerous cupboards and drawers, with quartz worksurfaces over. Fitted appliances include an integrated dishwasher, double oven and a four-ring electric hob with extractor hood above. The utility room has a continuation of the oak units from the kitchen and includes an integrated fridge/freezer, space for white goods, Belfast sink and further cupboards and drawers. Doors provide access to the garden, with a further door giving access to a ground floor walk-in wet room with shower, pedestal wash hand basing and a WC. To the rear of the shower room is the boiler room which is accessed from outside.

First Floor

The first floor landing has doors leading to three bedrooms, all of which enjoy views over the open countryside, and the family bathroom. Bedrooms one and two are both good sized double bedrooms, benefiting from dual aspect windows affording plenty of natural light. Bedroom one is located to the front aspect, whilst bedroom two is located to the rear elevation. The third bedroom is a good size single room with a built-in wardrobe/storage cupboard. The family bathroom is fully tiled to the walls and floor and is fitted with a modern white suite comprising of a panelled bath with glass shower screen and shower over, a pedestal wash hand basin, chrome heated towel radiator and WC.

Outside

The property is enclosed by a brick-built wall with double wrought iron gates, with secured intercom system, which open onto a large lawned frontage, with the property being approached by a part gravel and concrete driveway, which extends to the rear of the house, providing ample off-road parking for numerous vehicles and leads to the large double garage/outbuilding. To the rear, is a garden laid to lawn which backs on to open countryside, with a paved patio area directly to the rear of the property which provides an ideal space for outside seating and dining, a wonderful place to sit and enjoy the delightful views. To the side of the property is a paddock suitably fenced to allow for horses or other livestock to graze, beyond which is the large woodland which extends to 2.18 acres and has multiple uses.
