STUNNING 19TH CENTURY GRADE II LISTED FAMILY HOME

At the end of the gated sweeping drive, a particular feature of this stunning 19th Century Grade II Listed family home is the stunning palladian inspired facade of rounded arches and first floor balcony looking over the gardens.

With immaculately presented, well-proportioned accommodation spanning three floors, provides both character and contemporary living consisting of a bespoke Neptune kitchen opening into a family/dining room with fireplace and a brand new log burning stove, together with a utility room on the lower ground floor. On the ground floor there is an entrance hall, a sitting room with working fireplace and with doors to the garden, a double bedroom with ensuite shower room and doors to the garden and a cloakroom. On the first floor there is a double aspect principal bedroom with bespoke fitted wardrobes, a double bedroom with ensuite shower room, a study opening onto the balcony and a family bath/shower room.

The enclosed south facing garden of approximately 2/3 acres are laid predominantly to lawn with mature hedging, shrub and flower borders and paved terraces ideal for outside entertaining. There is a garage and ample off road parking available.

The property is conveniently situated within walking distance of the mainline railway station and the village centre at Staplehurst.
