£400,000
SHARE OF FREEHOLD

Fantastic apartment in the heart of the City and moments from the seafront. This beautifully presented property occupies the entire low ground floor level of an attractive, well maintained Regency Building. There is a feeling of space throughout with accommodation comprising; two double bedrooms, stunning bathroom and lovely living room opening into an impressive kitchen with Neff appliances and quartz countertops.

Outside the rear courtyard garden is accessed via French doors and is the perfect tranquil spot whilst the private entrance offers an additional patio area, currently utilised as an occasional outside dining area.

This location is hard to beat for anyone looking to take advantage of all the City has to offer. There are countless restaurants, coffee shops, bars etc within the area along with plenty of shops and additional amenities. Brighton mainline station offers regular and direct links to London.
