Introduction

15 Under Ffrydd Wood is a newly renovated detached bungalow that has undergone a complete make over by the current owners. The property now offers a newly installed kitchen with integrated appliances and forest green units, new shower room with rainfall shower and white vanity, two double bedrooms with feature wood panel walls, new internal doors, new windows throughout and flooring. The property sits in an elevated position with views onto the surrounding countryside around Knighton with parking, garage and gardens to the rear and side.

The accommodation comprises: entrance hall, living/dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, shower room and two double bedrooms.

Property description

The front door opens into the hall way with new laminate flooring leading through to the living/dining room and kitchen. There is a very handy double door storage cupboard in the hallway and brand new internal doors leading to all of the rooms. The living/dining room is to the front with three windows, which flood the room with light and offer fabulous views onto the hills beyond. There is space for a living area and dining table to one end. The kitchen/breakfast room has a stylish glazed internal door and a newly fitted kitchen with a range of wall and base units in a lovely forest green with integrated dishwasher, fridge, freezer, washing machine, oven, induction hob, extractor fan and composite sink with a black pull out hose mixer tap. There is also a very large storage cupboard perfect for a multitude of uses and a door leading out to the pretty rear garden. The shower room has a large shower tray with grey tiled walls, overhead dual waterfall shower, white WC and vanity sink with drawers underneath, tiled flooring and chrome towel radiator. There are two double bedrooms, one with a built in wardrobe. Both bedrooms benefit from wood panelled feature walls and newly fitted carpets.

Gardens and parking

The bungalow has parking and a large garage underneath the property that houses the boiler, immersion heater and has light and power with an up and over door. Steps lead up to the front door and open porch and a path leads around the side of the property. to the other side there are further steps leading to the rear garden which is enclosed and backs onto Ffrydd Wood. There is a lovely decked area to the corner, perfect for entertaining.

Location

The property is located in an elevated position just off the town centre of Knighton (Tref y Clawdd) which is located in Mid Wales, lying on the river Teme, with a railway station on the Heart of Wales line serving the west coast of Wales and provides access to mainline services from Ludlow. The Offas Dyke footpath is a 177 mile National Trail footpath that closely follows the England/Wales border. It opened in 1971 from Prestatyn to Chepstow with Knighton sitting at the half way point with a visitors centre. Knighton has a primary school, supermarket, leisure centre and many other smaller independent shops. The larger market town of Ludlow, 16 miles has a wider variety of facilities and hosts the famous Ludlow Food Festival. The larger Spa town of Llandrindod Wells, 18 miles offers a further wider range of facilities.
